DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 2/23/2004 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 12, 14-21, 26, and 28-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Jones et al. (US # 5,809,990).

Jones et al. discloses in Figures 1-7 a method and apparatus substantially as described in applicant's claims 12, 14-21, 26, and 28-31 including a mechanically operated valve (115) having gas inlet and outlet ports and positioned on the grill remove from a burner (101), a valve actuator arm (110) having a pivot (112) closely adjacent one end in spaced relation to the valve (see Fig. 1) and extending laterally beneath the burner and being spring biased (see spring loaded plunger 111 or 311) upwardly toward the burner on the other end (see col. 4, lines 14-27). The examiner considers that the both spring loaded plungers (111 and 311) are located adjacent to the pivots (112 and 312) (as shown in Figs. 1 and 3). Jones et al. also discloses an actuator member (see rod 109 and grate 107) supported by the other end of the valve actuator arm above the burner for receiving a cooking utensil when placed on the burner (see Fig. 1) wherein the actuator arm is pivotally supported adjacent the one end. The rod (109) forms an upright component integral with the actuator arm and extends upwardly through the burner (see Figs. 1 and 3).

The examiner considers that pivot (112) is adjacent the end of the actuator arm (110) contacting the valve and forms an elongated lever member between the cooking utensil and valve. Jones et al. further discloses that the actuator has an upright component integral therewith (see rod 109) extending through the burner and an offset end for clearing grill support members and providing central support for the cooking utensil (see Figs. 1 and 3), and the valve is located in closely spaced relation to the pivot and remove from the other end (see Fig. 1 and note that pivot 112 is closer to the valve end than the other end).

In regard to the limitation of the claims that the actuator member comprises a substantially flat surface (claims 1 and 26) and the actuator member is a substantially circular ring (claim 17), these limitations are not considered to define over Jones et al. While the actuator member shown in Figs. 1 and 3 appears to have a rounded tip, in Figs. 5-7 the actuator members shown have a substantially flat surface that the examiner also considers to be a substantially circular ring.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 22-25 are allowed.
5. Claims 13 and 27 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. This action is made non-final. A THREE month shortened statutory period for reply has been set. Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) months from the mailing date of this communication.
